WINE ACCOMPANIMENTS

Our beverage program celebrates thoughtful craftsmanship, featuring wines, beers, sakes, and alcohol-free selections from small, environmentally responsible producers who champion minimal-intervention practices, and many that have been made in-house by Chef Daniel Patterson. teas by song tea

We are pleased to offer a curated flight of rare, artisanal teas to complement the flavors of the menu. Each was sourced for us by Peter Song, a second-generation San Francisco tea seller who travels the remotest parts of Asia in search of the most vibrant, high-quality teas. These selections are produced on small farms without modern conveniences such as pesticides and often even machinery. Each leaf is picked and then cured or roasted by hand in small batches, the perfect expression of terroir and craftsmanship melding into artistry.
